

Annexure 8

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT AND LEARNING CONTRACT

I, _____ as a student of BML Munjal University (BMU) recognise that I, along with other students of the university need to individually and collectively create and sustain an environment and culture at BMU which facilitates achievement of the university's mission to 'develop ethical leaders with knowledge and skills to lead themselves and their organizations to success'. In order to achieve this, I commit to uphold the code of honour and learning contract as given below.

1. Responsibility for Self.

The primary responsibility for my learning, achievements (academic and otherwise) and the outcome of internship/placement rests with myself. University faculty and staff would support and provide the opportunities to me for the same. It would be my zeal, endeavour and application to benefit from them and that my initiative and commitment would be critical to gain success.

2. Commitment to Learning

I commit myself to participate actively and diligently to the learning process which would include pre-class preparation, being punctual, attending classes/sessions with active participation in the same, working on academic activities (projects, assignments, seminars, research etc.).

3. Learning beyond Classroom

I would take part in the non-academic activities with enthusiasm. These activities like, field visit, internship, industry events provide experiential learning and would be welcomed by me. I shall also participate in sports, institution building activities, directly and indirectly.

4. Ethical Behaviour

I would aspire to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. I am aware that BMU expects and hopes that in the course of my study and time at the University, I would live by these standards and not depart from fair, honest and diligent pursuit of knowledge. I would not do

- Cheating: use or attempt to use unauthorized assistance, material, or study aids in examinations or other academic work.
- Plagiarism: using the ideas, data, or language of another without specific or proper acknowledgment.
- Fabrication: submitting contrived or altered information in any academic exercise.
- Multiple submissions: submitting, without prior permission, any work submitted to fulfill another academic requirement.
- Misrepresentation of academic records: misrepresenting or tampering with or attempting to tamper with any portion of a student's transcripts or academic record, either before or after coming to the University.
- Facilitating academic dishonesty: knowingly helping or attempting to help another violate any provision of the Code.
- Unfair advantage: attempting to gain unauthorized advantage over fellow students in an academic exercise.

5. Student Citizenship

During my stay at the university I would conduct myself as a responsible citizen and observe the following.

- Respect the rights of fellow students to participate in university organizations without fear or threat; refrain from hate speech, epithets, and racial, ethnic, sexual and religious slurs.

- Refrain from stealing, damaging, defacing, or misusing the property or facilities of the University or of others. This includes the disruption of University computing services or misuse of the University computing resources for unlawful activities and acts of mischief.
- Be honest and truthful in dealings with the University, about one's own identity and in the use of University and other identification.
- Respect the health and safety of others. This precludes acts of threats of physical violence against another person (including sexual violence) and disorderly conduct.
- Comply with policies and regulations of the University and also the laws of India
